

ANNE WARREN
BORN 1769
DIED 1808
She was the daughter of the Rev. Mr. Warren of the Ministry of the Trinitarian and Baltimore Churches
BY HER DEATH
the American Language has been deprived of one of its BEST ORNAMENTS.
Her unrivaled talents, her theatrical talents,
her distinguished piety, her glowing virtues and
her many other qualities, which adorned her private life,
were not confined to her affectionate wife,
but to her mother and the many friends.
She died at Alexandria
June 28, 1808.
Aged 39 years.

The Anne Warren Grave Stone in Christ Church, Alexandria, Virginia. Mrs. Anne Warren (1769-1808) was the theatrically talented wife of William Warren, a leading Theater Personality of the time. Mrs. Warren died tragically at Gadsby's Tavern in Alexandria following the birth of a child.

... Photo by James Tondreau & Larry Franklin, of Alex., Va. ...

A92830

POST CARD

 Plastichrome[®]
by COLOURPICTURE
BOSTON, MASS. 02130